

Custom Single Level Home

10371 Mira Vista Dr, Santa Ana

This single level custom home has it all! As you enter through the lushly landscaped courtyard area you will immediately appreciate the privacy and peacefulness. Entering through the custom front doors you will be impressed by the spectacular architecture with massive open beam wood ceilings, high quality wood cabinetry, book shelves and majestic fireplaces. The family room is ideally situated and opens to the oversized kitchen area suitable for a gourmet chef. A separate generational bedroom with ensuite upgraded bathroom is located off the kitchen area. Two other bedrooms plus a custom office with built-in bookshelves are at the opposite side of the home with views of the patios and lush landscape. The over-sized master bedroom with ensuite master bathroom is custom with an upgraded shower area and granite counter tops. This is a great home for your large family that has plenty of room to share. Outside you will find multiple patio areas along with a full BBQ island for your outside parties. Everything is very private from the front courtyard area to the rear yard area which features a bubbling fountain. Tucked away you will find a large storage building, great for extra storage. In front is a circular driveway with room for an RV plus a full 3 car garage. This is truly a special and unique home that is a must see!
